Walking through the Psalms - The Despair: Psalm 13

Within every healthy relationship there needs to be space to express love and pain, joy and frustration, the good and the bad – in words that are often inadequate, or misunderstood – but they need to be said regardless.

Do not be surprised to find that the words of many of the Psalms confront and challenge us. The despair of Psalm 13 is evident "How long O Lord? Will you forget me forever? How long will you hide your face from me?"

Have you been, or are you in, a situation where God seems silent? Where despite your desperate need to heard – there is only a void. What is your response?

Yours in Christ,
Sid

Monthly Prayer Meeting	TODAY at 3pm
------------------------	-----------------

Mission Spot

Muana and Villy (Global Interaction)

God is great!! The Covid situation in Northern Thailand has steadily been improving with things beginning to return to normal in many provinces. The children have returned to school. We have reinstated our weekly meetings and ministry visits within the City and suburbs. However, ongoing prayer for Bangkok and the surrounding provinces where Covid19 is still rampant would be appreciated. Villy's brothers, Isaac, and Jacob, along with their families have all recovered from Covid19 virus.

Ongoing prayer is a necessary and essential part of life here. Can you please assist us in upholding Kade, Cherd, Chairman and See? In Sanpatong, our first meeting since Easter was held, however none of the ladies were able to attend due to pain from receiving influenza vaccines on the Saturday morning. We are specifically holding a blessing service and asking God to bless the land, seeds, rainfall, and health of the people, along with a bountiful harvest. Finally, praying for thanks for the lives of three missionaries and other friends in India, lost during the past few weeks to Covid19. The hard lock downs in India continue to remain active in many places and that brings with it, a variety of issues and challenges.

Prayer theme for June – Our Government & Leaders

Prayer is important for all of us. Paul encourages us to continuously pray (1 Thessalonians 5:17). As we have also been reminded earlier this month Paul also specifically urges us to pray for those in authority, be they in government or in the Church. When we pray for our leaders, for those do not Christ we can pray that they will know Him. For those that know Christ, we can pray that God will guide both them and us. Pray God will use the leaders as He wills. And for our all our church leaders pray for them to be strong for Christ. We can pray for their families as well.

This week please think about praying that God will direct the hearts and minds of our leaders and for God to support them.
