When we talk about something a lot, it would mean we are yearning for that "something" we do not have, or lack. In this age, we talk about love and justice a lot. Would that mean we lack both a lot? This might be the reason that we have a number of legislations passed in the name of love and justice in the last few years. However, it takes loving people to love others and just people to execute justice. Apostle John tells us in 1John 4:16, "God is love. Whoever lives in love lives in God, and God in them." Love is God's nature. God loves not because there is a law that forces Him to do so. Justice is also God's nature. God is both just and loving. Love and justice go hand in hand. God's Words are not laws for us to observe such that we can go to heaven. Rather, His Words are telling us His nature and teaching us to be like Him. Some of us may think churches talk about love a lot, but not justice. This may be true. However, true justice has to stand up to the test of God's love. When we know God more, we shall understand love and justice more. Better still, when we are more like Him, we can be more loving and just ourselves.

Yours in Christ,
Arthur

Quarterly Church Meeting CBC Auditorium	TODAY at 3pm
--	-----------------

May Mission Month

Thankyou for your support for Muana and Villy (Global Interaction) in Thailand working with the Ethnic Thai people. Please continue to pray for them, their family and the people they minister to. I am unable to report specifically how generous the CBC community has been for the Project as the donations were done directly to Global interaction's site. During the month of May we also heard about the work of—

Shayne and Melissa Hamilton (Power to Change) in schools and universities.

H.E.L.P. and Samaritan Children's home in Bangladesh from a video from David Halder and his newsletter.

Karl and Caroline Hochstetter with Sydney Refugee Team (WEC).
AEFI through Gavin Casey.

During this month CBC is devoted to prayer for Mission. This also includes Scripture in schools, ESL, Playgroup, Baptist Care and Hope Street, Connect groups and other ministries our Church quietly is involved in. All around the world mission groups are facing incredible challenges due to Covid and rapidly changing circumstances. The letters that are coming to CBC from all mission sources speak of the emotional toll as well as the tactical and financial difficulties being faced. They need and are encouraged by our prayers.

Trust in the Lord with all your heart, and do not rely on your own understanding; think about Him in all your ways, and he will guide you on the right paths.
Proverbs 3:5&6

Prayer theme for June – Our Government & Leaders

When it comes to praying for our leaders 1 Timothy 2-4 helps up to know how to pray for our leaders. It says "I urge you first of all to pray for all people, Ask God to help them, intercede on their behalf and give thanks for them, Pray this way for kings and all who are in authority so that we can live peaceful and quiet lives marked by good works and dignity."

For our leaders you might consider praying:

- for their salvation and change of heart and for those that are Christians that they are true to their beliefs
- wisdom for them in making good decisions according to God's will, particularly around the COVID-19 situation and all the implications for our community that need to be addressed
- their decisions and influence have a positive impact on our community.

Catalyst Event June 2021

Feast for Freedom/
Freedom to Flourish,
Host a Dinner, 20th -26th June

You're invited to participate in the CBC Catalyst event for 2021. CBC supports the Sydney Refugee Team (Karl and Caroline Hochstetter) in their work with refugees. The Catalyst team would like volunteers to host a dinner in your home to raise awareness of the work of SRT, the Refugee Council of Australia RCoA), and the Asylum Seeker Resource Centre (ASRC).

Dinner guests will be asked to make a small financial contribution to either of these agencies. This will be a great opportunity to invite friends, neighbours, work colleagues, family members who normally won't come to church to participate in an event to hear about Christians putting their faith into action. What you need to do: invite friends and family to a dinner in your home between 20th-26th June (Refugee Week), prepare a meal (recipes can be supplied), during the dinner play a short video from SRT and invite guests to make a financial contribution to one of the listed organisations.

To volunteer to host a dinner email Lyn Kidson.

Further info see Lyn or Karen Read or Caroline Hochstetter.

If you are attending CBC it would be appreciated if you could wear a name tag each week, as Sid & Jenny are getting to know us!
