In the fast-paced world in which we live, waiting is not something any of us like to do. The modern conveniences we use were designed to save time. Think of the microwave. I can come home from being out, and providing I have a meal in the freezer, dinner can be on the table within a very short time. But for those minutes, no matter how many, I don't wait patiently, enjoying those minutes I am saving, but I rush around and do jobs - to save me time!

In Psalm 40, the psalmist commences with a simple statement: 'I waited patiently for the Lord;' (Psalm 40:1). In Hebrew, the phrase means 'I waited -waited'. This doubling of a term intensifies and exaggerates the meaning as the Psalmist waited with deep concentration and great expectancy. Timothy Keller in his devotional 'My Rock and My Refuge' writes: Waiting on God then is to be busy in service to God and to others, all in full acceptance of his wisdom and timing. That kind of waiting may indeed be long and excruciating but finally it leads to '...a new song in my mouth, a hymn of praise to our God.' (Psalm 40:3a)

Each of us has times when we are waiting on God for His plan to be revealed for our life – but it is taking a long time. As we wait, may we also have the patience to 'wait-wait' for God's will and may the words of the Psalmist be our words: But may all who see you rejoice and be glad in you; may those who love your saving help always say "The Lord is great!" (Psalm 40:16)

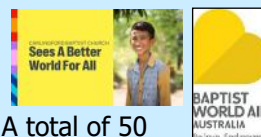

In Christ,
Howard

Mission Spot— Christmas Appeal Baptist world Aid (Cambodia)

As many as 828 million people go to bed hungry every night, the number of those facing acute food insecurity has soared-from 135 million to 345 million-since 2019. A total of 50 million people in 45 countries are teetering on the edge of famine'- World Food Program....And so we give. "Command those who are rich in this present world not to be arrogant nor put their hope in wealth, which is so uncertain but to put their hope in God, who richly provides us with everything for our enjoyment. Command them to do good, to be rich in good deeds, and generous and willing to share. In this way they will lay up treasure for themselves as a firm foundation for the coming age, so they may take hold of life that is truly life' 1 Timothy 6:17-19

Your generosity allows children to go to school, attend Child and Youth Clubs, and learn about their rights. Protect communities from the spread of disease through hand-washing awareness training. Teach agricultural and savings skills so families can grow their income. To give scan the QR code or use a giving envelope or slip which are available in the CBC Foyer.
